UPON READING the affidavit of MS. GRACE OPPON Senior State Attorney of the Attorney Generals Department Accra, filed on 31st October, 2014 in support of Motion Ex parte for an interlocutory injunction;

AND UPON HEARING HON. DR. DOMINIC A. AYINE, Deputy Attorney General on behalf of the Plaintiff/Applicant;

THE APPLICATION IS GRANTED CONDITIONALLY ONLY AND IN THE FOLLOWING TERMS.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. All the Defendants/Respondents herein especially their respective executives and officers howsoever they may be designated, defined or identified, together with their members are hereby restrained by way of an order of Interlocutory Injunction from embarking upon or in any way or manner continuing with the Industrial action or indefinite strike declared, called or announced on October 21st 2014, by reason of which they may not make available their services to their employers and the general public in terms of their individual contracts of employment or the conditions of their respective engagement by reason of issues they had raised with particular reference to and over the second tier Pension Scheme established under the National Pensions Act, 2008 (Act 766). The Leadership of the Defendant Unions shall ensure the immediate cessation of their declared indefinite strike action and the return to work of their respective members.
2. This order of Interlocutory Injunction is to take immediate effect and shall remain in force for a period of eight (8) days or until further order by this Court.
3. The Plaintiff/Applicant herein is hereby directed to file a fresh MOTION ON NOTICE for Interlocutory Injunction forthwith to be served on all the Defendants/Respondents herein.
4. All efforts should be made to immediately or promptly serve all the Defendants/Respondents with the Writ and Statement of Claim filed by Plaintiff/Applicant herein, namely, suit No. INDL/6/15 dated 24th day of October, 2014.
5. The Defendants/Respondents affected by the instant order of Interlocutory Injunction may if they so wish within the period of eight (8) days provided in the Order apply to the Court to vacate the said Order .
6. In view of the urgency and delicacy of the issues raised in the substantive suit, all parties are hereby encouraged to co-operate to facilitate the early determination of all the issues in controversy in the said case in the ultimate and best interest of Ghana as a nation.
